

No one is forced to pay a monthly premium in order to receive satellite radio programming. It is just as much a choice for someone to listen to satellite radio programming as it is to decide which local FM/AM station to listen to. There is no reason to ban satellite radio from broadcasting any type of programming. This should be a choice by the consumer, not the law-makers. Please reject NAB's petition 04-160. Thank you.